TRAIN LOAD OF STEERAGE PASSENGERS FROM CECILIE Came From Bar Harbor, Going Through New London to New York.

Another special train from Bar Harbor, with passengers from the Kronprinzessin Cecelle, passed through New London on Thursday morning. It had on board 450 steerage passengers and reached New Lon-don at 9.35, having left Bar Harbor Wednesday night at 7 o'clock for New York, in charge of Conductor Frank Kent. It made a 10-minute stop in Kent. It ma New London.

The special's passengers were a sor-ry looking lot, in comparison with the first nd second cabin passengers, who went through on a special Wednesday morning. The train contained Rusmorning. The train contained Russians, Germans, Austrians and Hungarians and Servians. Mose of them had rather a hazy notion that there was trouble "over in the old country," and were anxious to complete the journey for which they contracted with the steamship company.

One young man, who looked most likely to be a possessor of information was approached by a reported. He was approached by a reported. He was asked: "Well, sir, what kind of a time have you folks in the steerage been having?"

The young man paused, looked over the inquirer, and remarked plainly "I'm German. I don't talk English. You will have to talk with some of the others."

He was prompt to walk away, leavthere was from Wednesday's crowd. but there was more of a demand for beer, with the result that saloons in the vicinity did a lively business while the train waited. All the passengers eemed to have United States coins. One very obliging Russian said the steerage passengers knew very little about the Cecille's movements. When she turned about to put back to America, the steerage was bunked for the night. The next day it leaked out among the immigrants that they were headed in the direction opposite that of the day before. Once in a while a visitor to the steerage brought in-

Young Deers Won Gamme. Young Deers Won Gamma.

The Young Deers took a double header from the Rough and Readys Wednesday afternoon on the Providence Street grounds. The score of the first game was 14 to 7 and the second 1 to 9. Both teams used the same batteries for both games and they were as follows: Young Deers, Coleman, Landry. Rough and Readys, Champaigh and LeBeare. Monday the Young Deers is a close game succeeded in trimming the Runaways by the score of 4 to 3.

Good Luck Fishing. George Weiler, Hugh Kinder and William Kinder of Occum went fish-ing in the river Wednesday afternoon and caught nine base. Another party made up of John Murphy and Ernest Dubriuil made a big catch of 41, including perch, bass and pickerel. The river it is reported is in fine condition for fishing and daily some one is taking good advantage of its lowness. The only difficulty that some of the fishermen have is in securing the hair curing the bait.

Many of the cierks in the stores tht were closed for the day enjoyed a day at the beach. Others who did not go to the beach went up the river to the fishing grounds.
